

Ullapool Harbour

Approaches, Technical Data, Harbour Plans, Bathymetry

Ullapool Harbour

Ullapool is a natural sheltered deepwater anchorage with easy accessibility from the west.

The harbour routinely handles vessels of up to 50,000 tonnes and is capable of taking cruise ships to a maximum of 70,000 tonnes, 2500 passengers.

Contacts

Harbour	24/7 VHF 14/16
Duty Mobile	24/7 0044 773 995 1178
Harbourmaster Office	+44 1854 612724 Mobile +44 773 400 4843
Depute Harbourmaster	+44 1854 612091 Mobile +44 773 951 1178

Navigational Information

Approaches and anchorage depth are never less than 20m

Anchorage Position - 57 53.35N 05 09.30W

Maximum tidal current - 2 knots at the navigation buoy

Prevailing Wind - South Westerly

Live wind speed and direction at <http://www.ullapoolharbour.co.uk/weatherstation/>

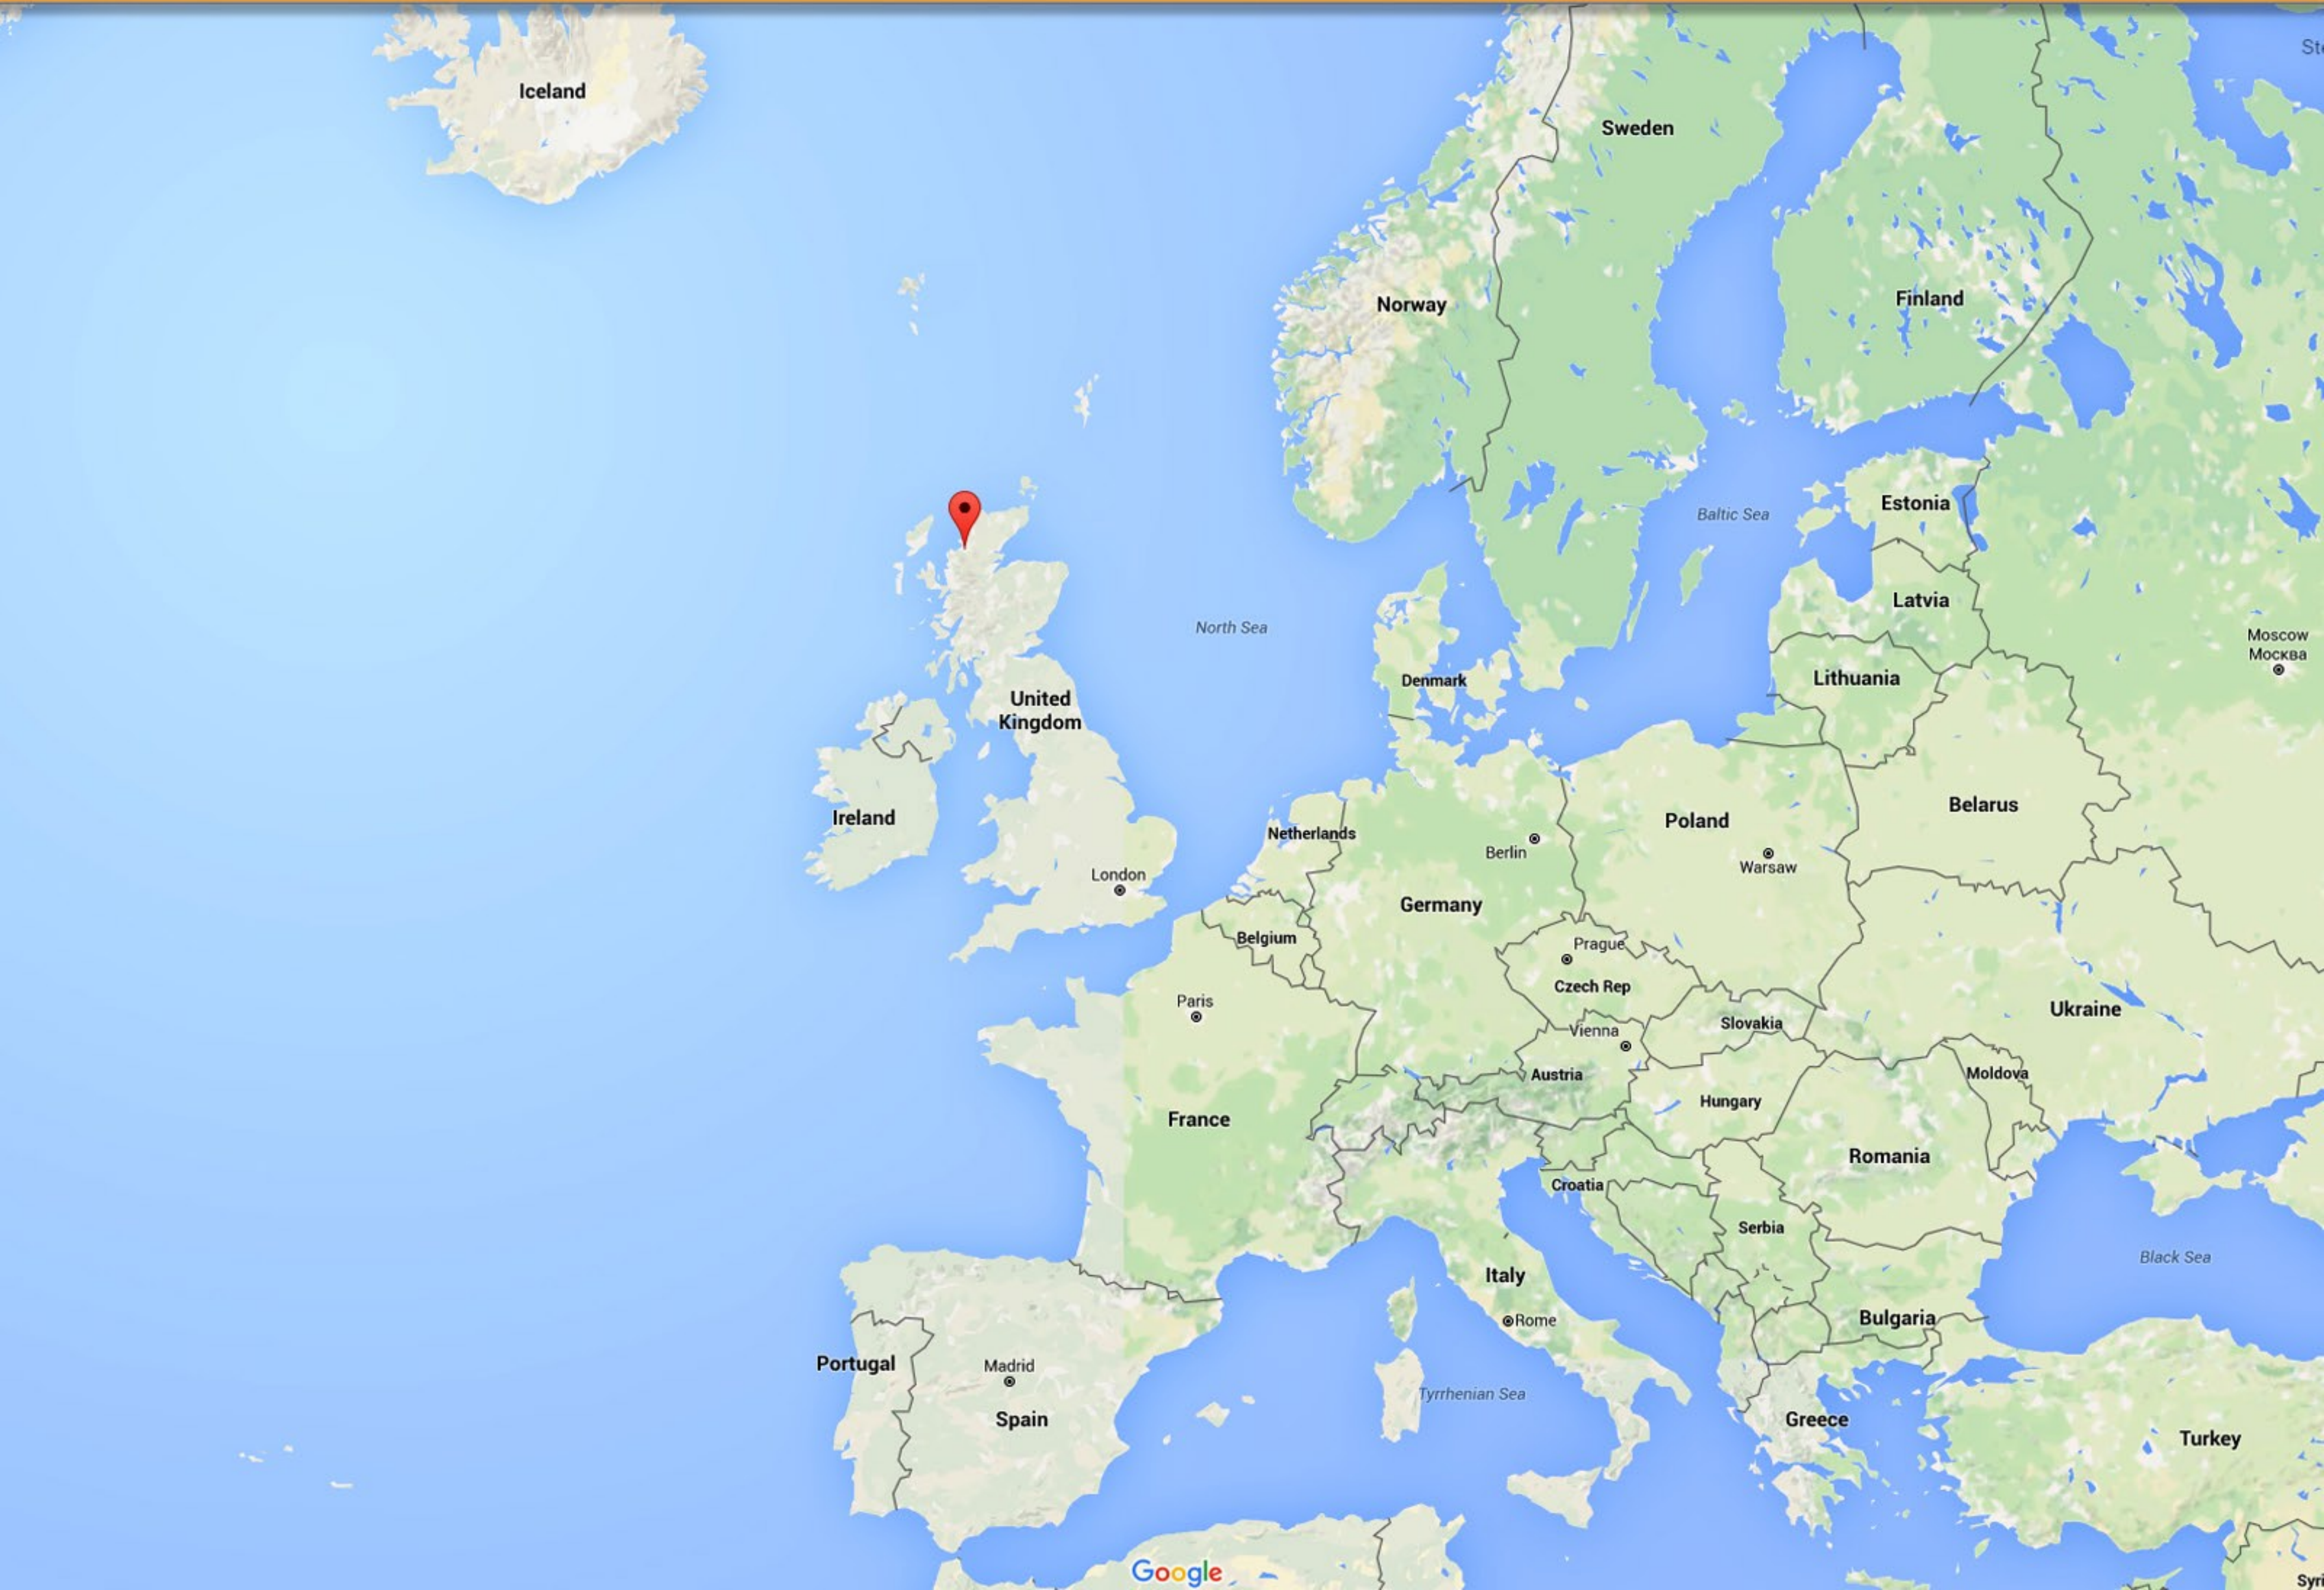

Routine Daily Traffic

Ullapool/Stornoway Ferry - MV Loch Seaforth

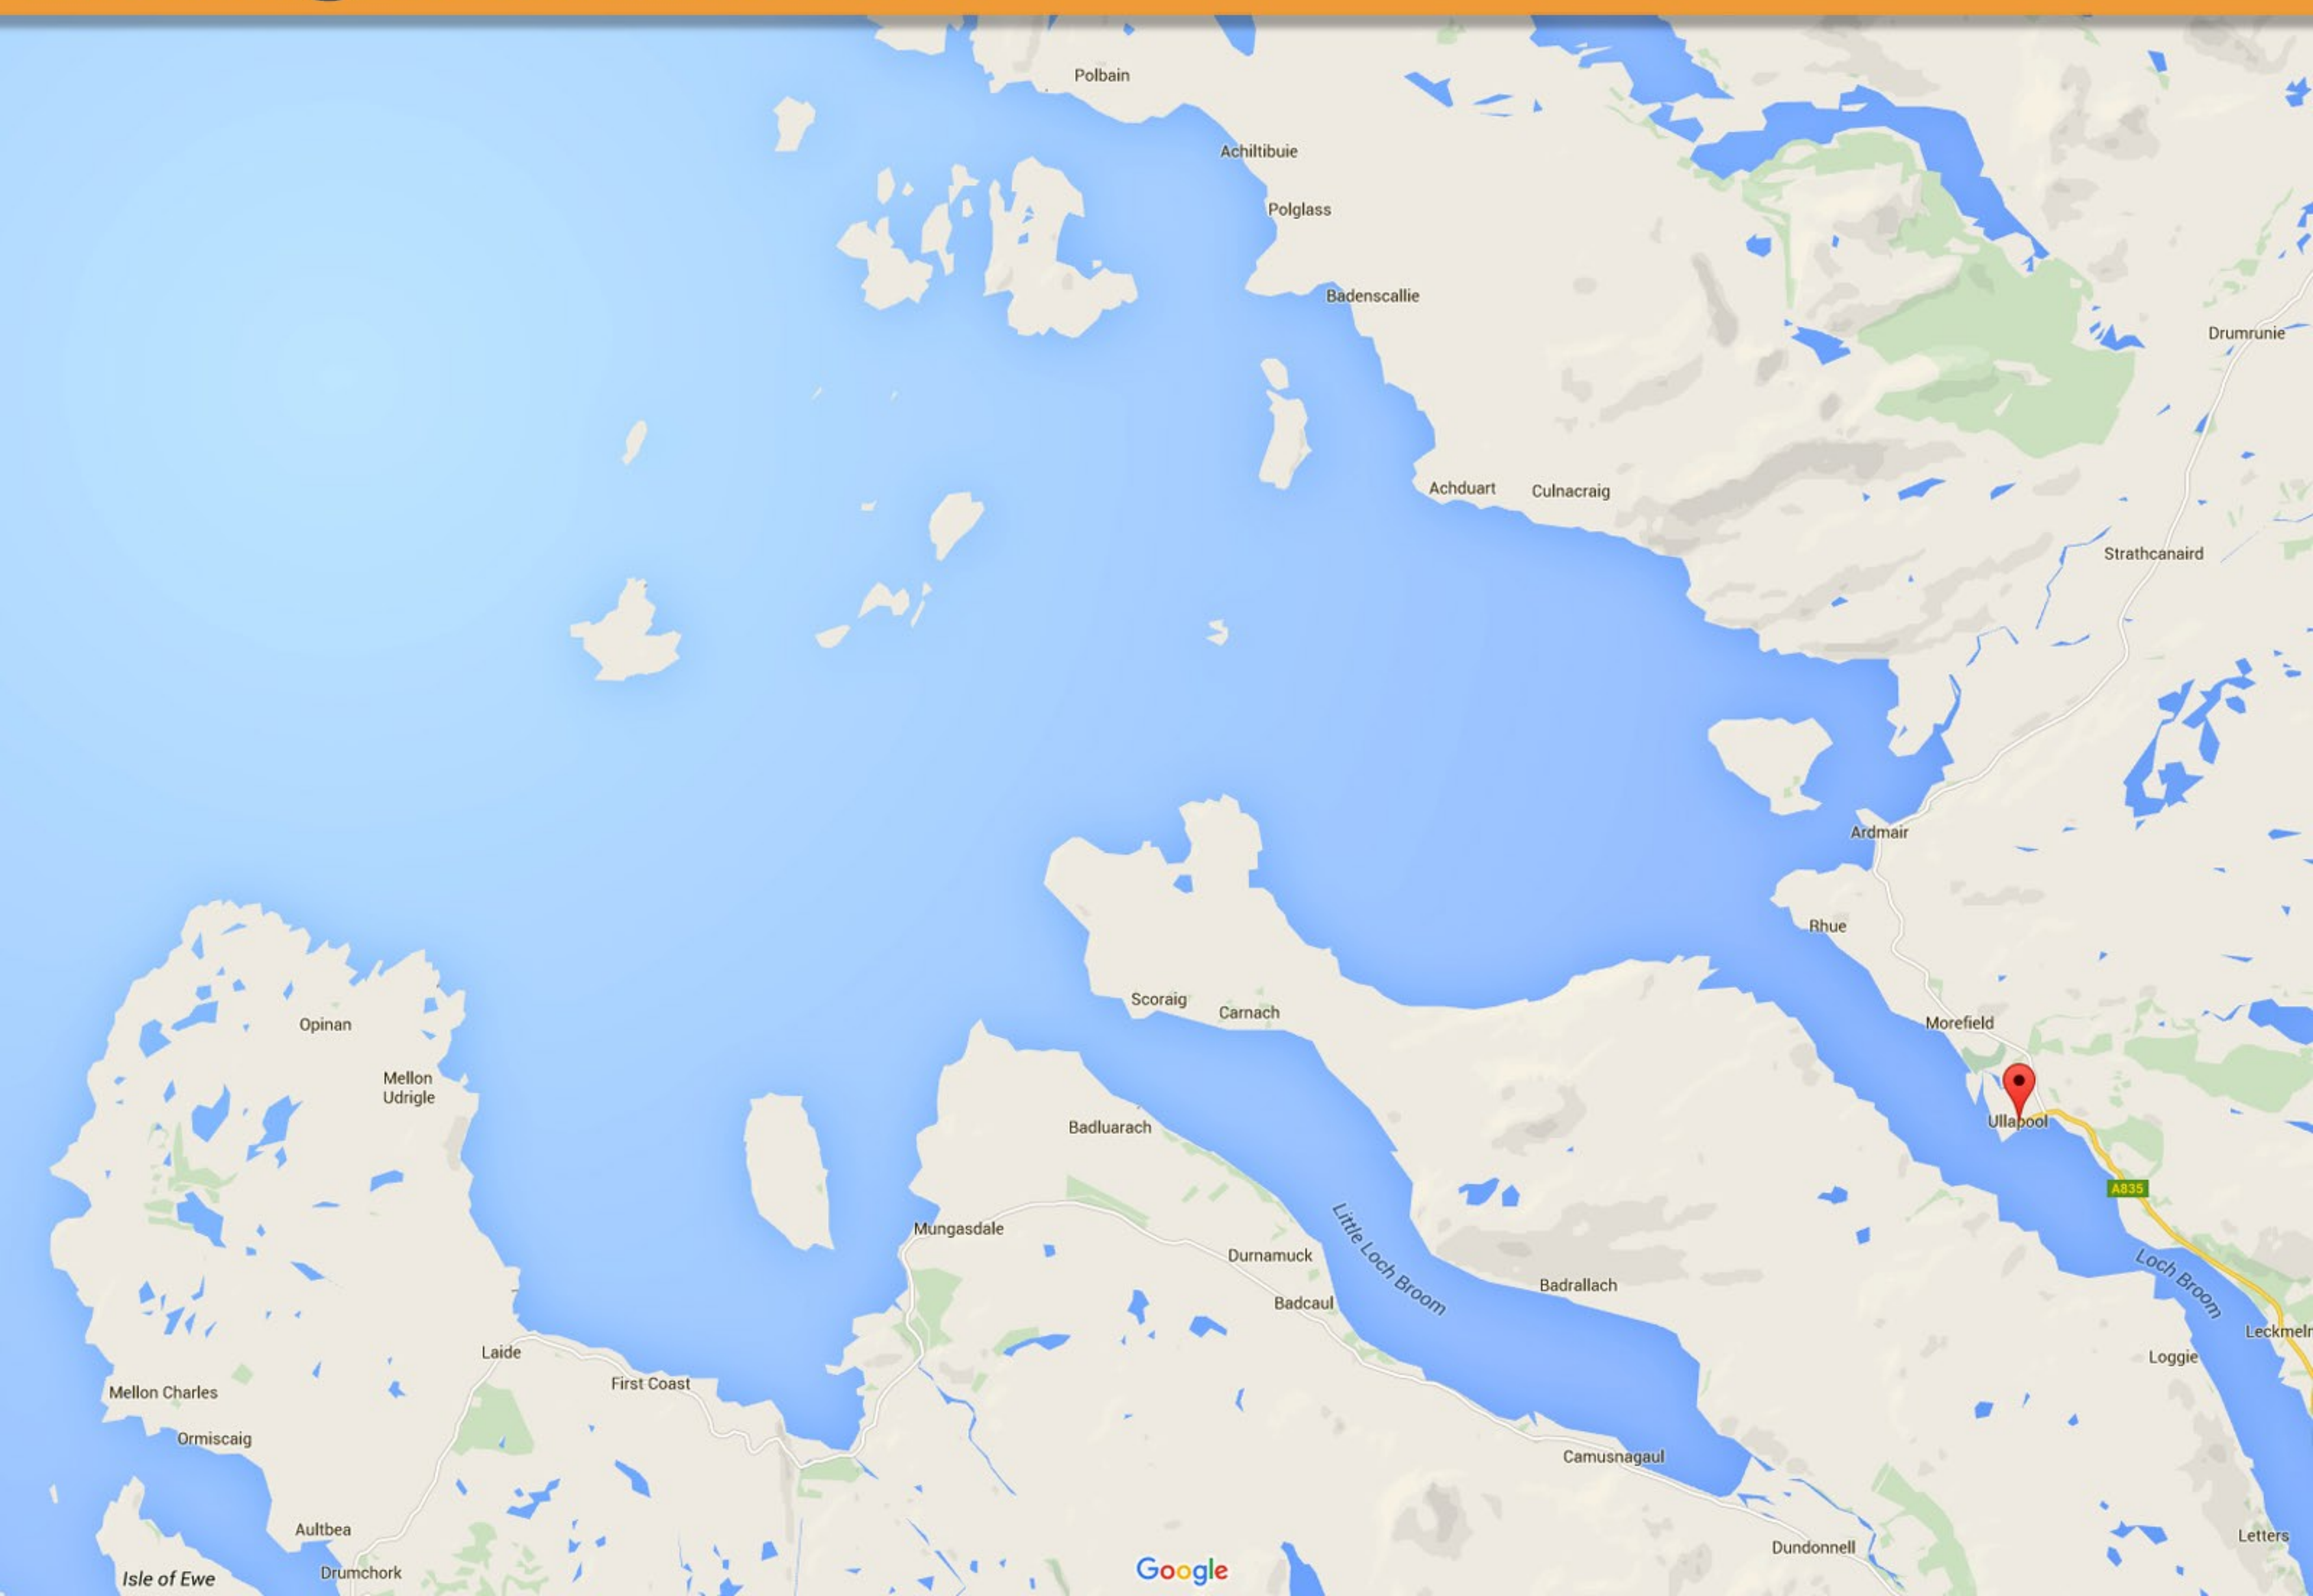

Arrives 0930hrs and 1630hrs (Mon - Fri), 0930hrs and 1700hrs (Sat), 1700 hrs (Sun)

Remains alongside for 1 hour approximately

Ullapool, Scotland

Anchorage Position Location

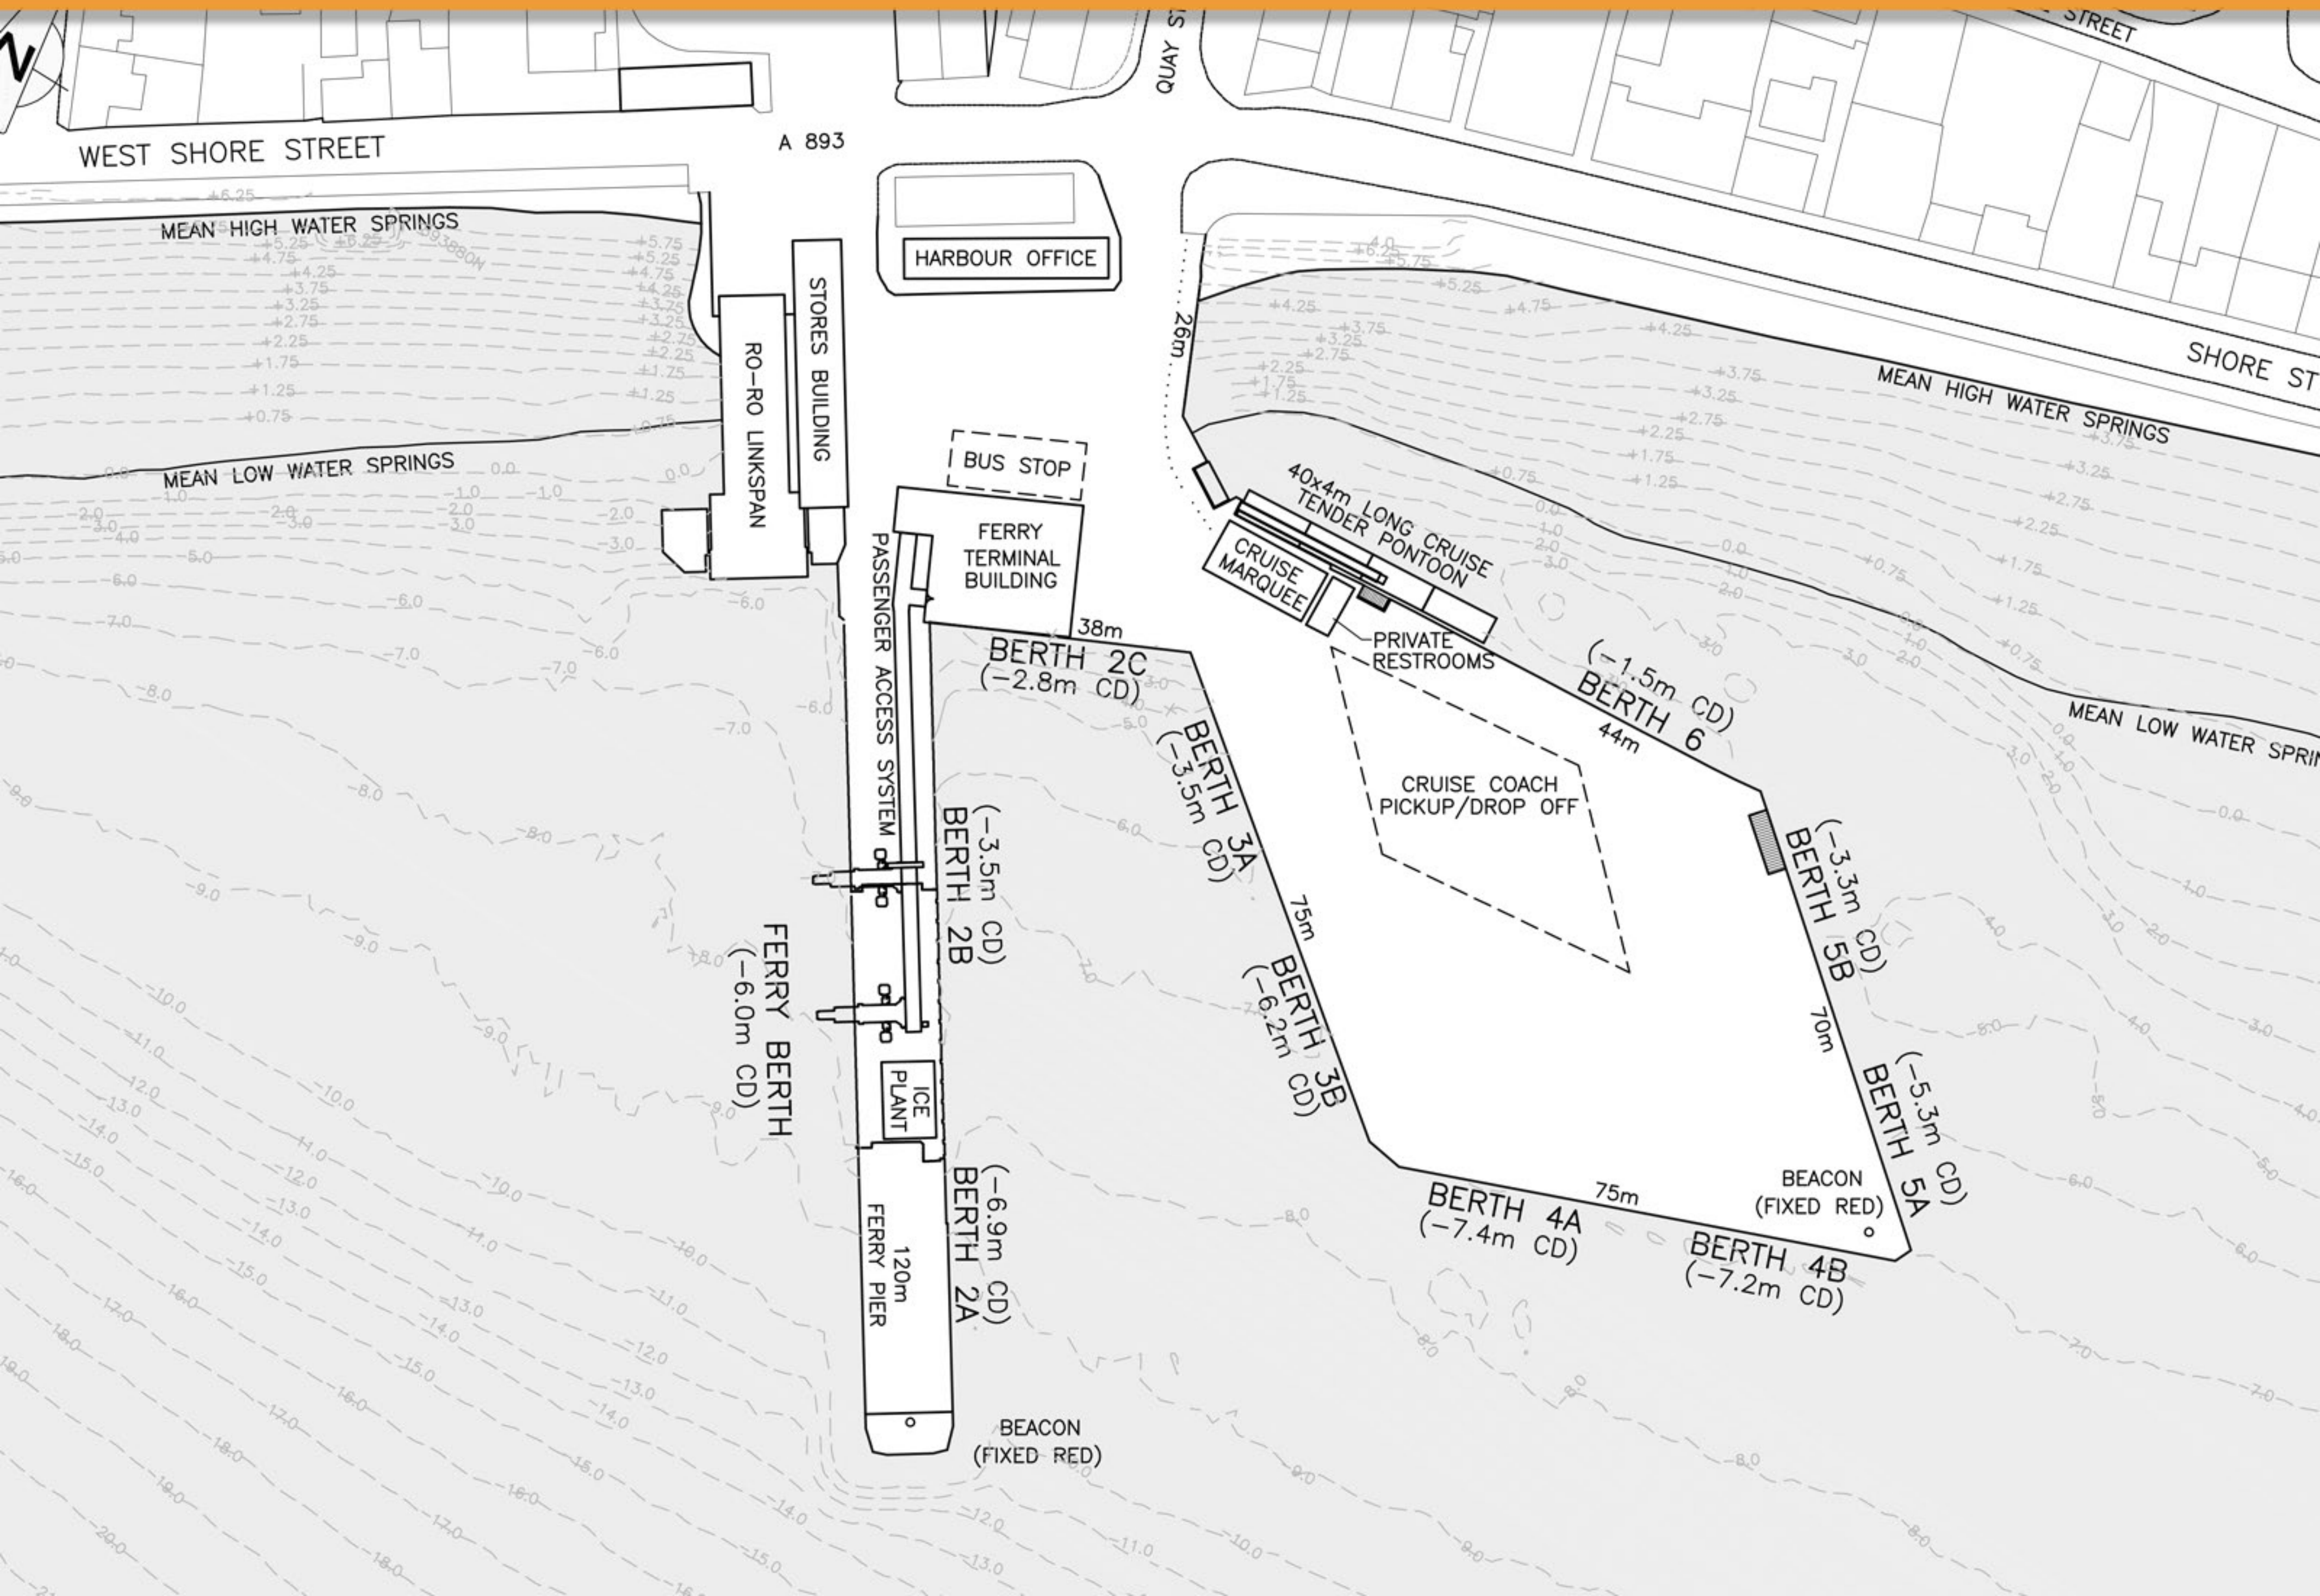

Anchorage Position Location

Anchorage Position
57 53.35N
05 09.30W

Harbour Plan

CSV Discovery

Arriving in the Bay (20,000 GRT)

The World

at Anchor (43,500k GRT)

CSV Artania (44,600 GRT) Discharging to Pontoon and Welcome Marquee

CSV Balmoral

at Anchor in the Bay (43,537 GRT)

Looking West

Along the Harbour Approaches

Looking South

Anchorage and Harbour

